WASHINGTON (AP) — House civil rights quarterbacks drafted today what they called a strengthened version of the administration's voting referee plan.

It would, they said, provide for Negroes or other minority citizens to cast their ballots even though their rights to vote was under challenge. The ballots would be impounded and passed on later.

Rep. Emanuel Celler of New York, Democratic floor leader for the civil rights forces, said the proposal had been accepted by Republican members, administration spokesmen and Democrats who Tuesday pushed a broad new voting rights plan.

The injection of the new plan Tuesday sent the House into a parliamentary spin and at one point temporarily knocked from the pending bill virtually all voting enforcement. However, the referee proposal was quickly restored as the pending business.

Today's new idea was an effort to get all civil rights backers behind one plan.

A House decision on the issue was in prospect before nightfall.

In another development in the rights battle, President Eisenhower reaffirmed at a news conference his support for the administration's seven-point program. Eisenhower said he hoped the Senate would put in any parts of his program that might be left out of the House bill.

Eisenhower, in his news conference remarks about civil rights legislation, also got in an admonition against violence in racial matters.

He said violence didn't achieve anything. He also said he believes there are certain proper and constitutional demonstrations that can be made by minorities to show their desire for equality.

The divisions among House backers of civil rights legislation as to form got them into deep difficulties Tuesday.

Unsuccessful in Escape Attempt

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three prisoners pried a bar from a cell in Pulaski County Jail today and made an unsuccessful attempt to escape.

Police said Jailer Bert Campbell was struck on the head in a scuffle with the prisoners. Two deputy sheriffs who had just arrived at the jail-thwarted the flight.

Campbell was treated for minor cuts on the head and released. Sheriff L. C. Young identified the prisoners as Harvey Edward Lingle, 24, and Nick Hansen, 17, both of Chicago and both held on federal charges in connection with auto theft, and Joseph Smith, 29, of Connecticut, charged with burglary and grand larceny in Arkansas.

Young said a rail from the steel bottom of a bunk was used to pry the cell bar off.

President Gives Endorsement to Mr. Nixon

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower publicly endorsed Vice President Richard M. Nixon today as his choice for the Republican presidential nomination.

Eisenhower made plain at a news conference that he supports Nixon who at this point has no opposition for the nomination.

The President who was asked about published reports that at a dinner Saturday night he indirectly tapped the vice president as his choice to succeed him in the White House.

The reporter was alluding to the annual dinner of the Gridiron Club and organization of newsmen. Eisenhower spoke there but the club rules specify that "reporters are never present."

Nevertheless some news writers who did not attend the dinner got word that Eisenhower had in effect endorsed Nixon. They wrote dispatches saying so.

When the matter of these published reports was brought up today, Eisenhower chuckled and said that at the dinner he actually had been referring to geographical areas at the dinner table.

His suggestion was that he had not actually endorsed Nixon there. But when he went on to say that if anyone is wondering whether he has any preference or bias as to a choice for the GOP presidential nomination, the answer very definitely is yes.

A little later he made it crystal clear that his preference is Nixon.

That happened when a reporter asked whether he had Nixon in mind in talking about whether he had any bias in the matter.

In reply, the President fired a question of his own. It was: Was there any doubt in your mind?

Eisenhower's reference to geographical areas at the dinner table related to the stories drawing the inference he had endorsed Nixon at the Gridiron dinner. The stories said he had suggested that those at the head table move a couple of places — which would have put Nixon in Eisenhower's seat.

Tells About School for Children

The heart-warming story of the $1,200,000 Arkansas Children's Colony — a training center for the mentally retarded children of Arkansas — was brought to the Hope Kiwanis Club Tuesday by David B. Ray Jr., superintendent of the institution.

The training center opened last Sept. 1, the realization of ten years of hopes and plans by hundreds of public minded citizens of Arkansas. The institution is located just north of Conway on a plot of ground containing 405 acres.

The training center is state-supported and has an operating budget of $400,000 per year. Total enrollment at the present time is 256 children, but there is a waiting list of about 1400 of which 14 are from Hempstead county, Mr. Ray pointed out.

Arkansas is the 48th state in the union to set up an institution. Nevada and Alaska being the only two states without similar facilities for mentally retarded children.

"With the creation of the Arkansas Children's Colony, many of our less fortunate children will now be in a position to receive the type of specialized care and treatment which they need," Mr. Ray pointed out.

Tuesday's program was arranged by C. C. Lewis and Haskell Jones. The latter appeared on the dedication program at Conway last September and introduced the speaker Tuesday.

Presbyterian Lead Taken by Prescott

After leading the Prescott Presbyterians in attendance for four successive Sundays the Hope contenders fell behind, 84-75, Sunday and this enabled the Prescott men to increase their contest point lead 1380 to 1292.

It was reported Sunday that the locals had regained the lead; however, this proved to be in error as a mistake had been made in compiling the Hope score.

Forty seven of the 75 men in attendance at the local class session Sunday had not missed for six weeks and each was credited with six points. Two men had attended for five successive Sundays, six for four weeks, four for three weeks, three for two weeks and 13 were credited with one point each.

Carl Dalrymple, president of the Prescott Bible Class, reports 53 members of his class have not missed a Sunday since the contest started six weeks ago. The contest will end on Easter Sunday, April 17.

Because of a conflict with a state convention of radio broadcasters, "Jones Sunday" with Haskell Jones as teacher, has been postponed until March 27, according to Arthur Wimmell. Hope class president. This is also the Sunday for the sirloin steak breakfast to be given by Lester Hobbs of Little Rock.

John Lowe will teach the class Sunday, March 20 at 10 a.m. following a social hour beginning at 9:30.

Scouts Will Travel Trail of Tears

A portion of the "Trail of Tears" which Indians made in 1832 will be re-traveled this summer by Scouts of the Caddo Council, according to Leonard Graham, district executive.

This is the trail on which 4,000 Cherokee Indians died when forced to move to reservations in Oklahoma. A portion of this trail will be opened from Camp Pioneer, near Hatfield, to the Glover River Council Camp in Oklahoma a distance of some 50 miles.

Members of the Bradley Troop 72 will make the trip April 14-16 under sponsorship of the American Legion Post. The trail will be blazed in advance by Mr. Graham and a group from Bradley who will travel on horseback, marking the trail and planning camp sites.

The trail goes from Hatfield to Watson, Oklahoma, Hec Mountain Towers, Mountain Fork River, Sherwood, close to the Carter Mountain Towers and on to Glover River, where the Oklahoma camp is located.

It is planned to make this a regular occasion each year for Scouts of this area.

Tells How to Be Sane in a Crazy World

"How to Be Sane in a Crazy World" was the subject of Rev. Harold Bennett's talk at Hope Lions Club weekly luncheon. He is holding a revival at First Baptist Church in the mornings and evenings. He has been pastor of Beech Street Baptist Church in Texarkana but recently accepted the position of Supt. of New Work of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention in Nashville, Tenn.

Rev. Bennett was introduced by Dr. John McClanahan after the invocation by Lion James Morrow.

Three ways that would help anyone to remain sane in this mixed up world are: 1. Feel a real sense of patronism. 2. Have a sense of humor. 3. Give God a chance in our lives.

500 Arrests in South Slowing Negro Sildowns

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More than 500 Negroes have been arrested in the largest mass police crackdown since demonstrations against segregated eating facilities in the South began a month and a half ago.

The blanket arrests Tuesday led one state official of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People to charge that police were engaging in strong arm, Fascist-like tactics.

Police at Orangeburg, S.C., used tear gas and fire hoses to quell an estimated 1,000 demonstrating students and arrested 350 of them. All were charged with breach of the peace and released under $10 bond each.

At Atlanta, in segregation minded Georgia, 77 Negroes and 2 white youths were jailed in connection with sit-ins at 10 downtown cafeterias. The Negroes were released later on $300 bond each. The white youths were given 30 day jail terms.

Among those arrested was the Rev. A. D. Williams King, a brother of the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., Negro integration leader and exponent of passive resistance.

Arrests also occurred in two other South Carolina cities and at St. Augustine, Fla.

The Orangeburg arrests came after police tried to break up a protest march by about 1,000 students from South Carolina A. & T. and Claflin Colleges. The students refused to disperse. Fire hoses were turned on about 300 of them and two tear gas canisters were exploded.

The Rev. H. P. Sharper, a Florida Baptist minister and president of the South Carolina NAACP Conference, said that because of "strongarm, Fascist-like tactics" of peace officers "we conclude that appeal to federal agencies is our last resort."

In other South Carolina developments, 70 Negroes were arrested at Rock Hill as they picketed City Hall. Ten Negroes were arrested at Columbia and charged with trespassing at lunch counters in variety stores.

The Atlanta demonstrations were described as the largest simultaneous sit-ins yet staged in the South. The protests were held at cafeterias in the state Capitol, City Hall, the Courthouse, in two buildings where there are a number of federal agencies at two railroad stations, two bus stations and a variety store.

Many of those taking part came from the city's six Negro colleges. All the Negroes were charged with disorderly conduct and refusal to leave premises when asked to do so—provisions of an act approved at the recent session of the Georgia Legislature. In addition 18 of them were charged under a law originally drawn to halt Ku Klux Klan activities and an old unlawful assembly act.

Faubus Makes It Official--He Will Seek a 4th Term

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval B. Faubus announced today he will seek an unprecedented fourth term.

The governor said in a prepared statement that a survey had led him to believe he would win.

His statement ended months of speculation about whether he would try for another term as governor, seek election to the United States Senate or even make a bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Faubus pledged himself to continue a defense of states rights if renominated in the summer Democratic primary.

The man who leaped into world prominence by defying the federal government in Little Rock's public school integration crisis of 1957 vowed to continue his stand against "the usurpation of the people's rights."

He also said he hoped for further gains in teachers' salaries, in grants to indigent old persons and in the state's industrialization program.

One gubernatorial opponent — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett.

Like Faubus, Bennett is a die-hard foe of federally ordered integration. He filed for nomination as governor on Jan. 13, promising an "affirmative campaign" which would be free of personal attacks on any opponents.

Faubus won a third term in 1956 by a landslide. Running on a platform which included sworn enmity to forcible integration and a promise of efforts to expand the state's industry, he smashed the gubernatorial bids of two vigorous foes.

Both of these candidates — Chancellor Leo Ward of Jonesboro, and meat packer Chris Finkbeiner of Little Rock — probably would have Continued on Page Four

Weather Picture Is Pacid Today

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas' weather picture today was placid compared with the bombardment of snow, sleet and rain which has plagued the state in the past few days.

The forecast called for cool temperatures through tomorrow, but there was no prediction of inclement weather.

Highs today are expected to range from the mid 30s to the upper 40s. Tonight's lows are due to vary from the low 20s to mid 30s.

State Police headquarters at Little Rock said all roads in the state were open. A number of schools which closed down when a new snowstorm hit the state Monday resumed classes today.

There was still a lot of snow on the ground in a wide belt of northern Arkansas.

Minimum temperatures today ranged from 27 at Fayetteville to 34 at Walnut Ridge and Pine Bluff.

Highs yesterday varied from 35 at Walnut Ridge to 44 at El Dorado. All sections of Arkansas reported precipitation in the 24-hour period which ended at 6 a.m. today, the largest amount being .34 of an inch of rain at Pine Bluff.

Russia Propose Army Cuts of 1.7 Million Men

By TOM OCHILTREE

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union today proposed that the United States, the U.S.S.R. and Red China cut their armed forces to 1,700,000 men each within 10 months.

Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zorin made the proposal to the 10-nation disarmament conference, at a closed session during which the five Western allies formally submitted their three-stage plan to halt the arms race. The Western plan was made public Tuesday and got a chilly reception from the Soviet.

The Soviet plan—which has not been formally put before the conference—is based on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's proposal to the U. N. General Assembly last September that all nations disarm completely within a four-year period.

Zorin said the Soviet plan also calls for disarmament in three stages. Paralleling the troop cuts for the three biggest powers, he proposed that Britain and France reduce their armed forces to 650,000 men each.

The United States now has about 2 1/2 million men in uniform. The U.S.S.R. says it has 2,623,000, but Khrushchev has announced 1,200,000 will be demobilized within the next year or so. U. S. military officials estimate Red China has 2,600,000 men in its army and an air force large enough to man 2,000 jets.

The Western plan calls for the United States and Soviet Union to hold their forces to 2 1/2 million men each in the first stage, and to cut them to 2,100,000 in the second stage with corresponding reductions in other countries. The plan sets no timetable for the stages.

Zorin told a news conference after the session that under the Soviet plan, all stages of disarmament would be supervised by an international control organization and an inspection system. In previous disarmament negotiations, however, Soviet and Western ideas of an adequate control system have been far apart.

In the second stage of the Soviet plan, said Zorin, all armed forces would be disbanded and all foreign bases would be liquidated. This could be completed within two years, he said.

In the third stage all types of nuclear weapons would be destroyed.

The Soviet delegate said his government would insist that all nuclear weapon tests be banned "even before an agreement on disarmament is implemented."

The United States, Britain and the Soviet Union have been negotiating in Geneva for 18 months.

Stewart Not Given Much of an Office

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—A grade B movie on an austerity budget could provide better props than Brig. Gen. James Stewart has for working his two weeks of active duty in the Pentagon Air Force headquarters.

The temporary desk assigned to the tall, taciturn actor is pushed up against the desks of another brigadier general and a colonel. It has no telephone. The pen doesn't work.

There is a tray of paper clips, a desk blotter, and a large pamphlet describing the administrative organization of the United States Air Force.

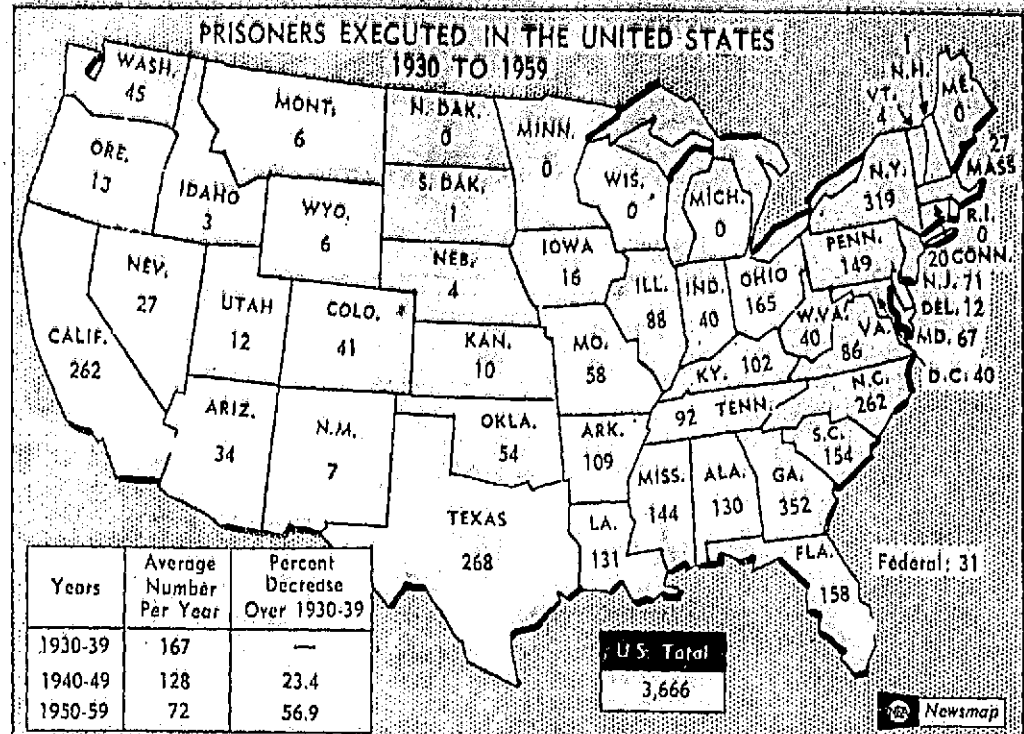

The offices of the director of public information are on an inside ring of the gigantic Pentagon building. The view from the window includes a concrete wall and a row of windows across the way.

Reserve officers have "mobilization assignments," the job they would be assigned in event of war. Stewart's assignment is deputy director of information. He is getting on-the-job training.

Supervising is Maj. Gen. Arno J. Luehman, USAF, director of information. Stewart is the standard for Brig. Gen. E. B. LeBarry, the regular deputy director of information.

The Air Force apparently is grim in its determination to give the actor a crash course in the art of public relations. There is a detailed schedule which looks like a film-shooting script—it carries briefings, meetings and conferences.

SUPREME PENALTY—A total of 3,666 persons were executed in the United States in federal and state institutions during the 30 years from 1930 through 1959. Thirty-one were women. In 1959, 49 executions were carried out, one more than the record low of 48 in 1958. Forty-one were for murder and eight for rape. Prisoners' ages ranged from 18 to 58; the average was 34. Gas was used in nine executions, electrocution in 40. With a few exceptions, such as for treason, seven of the continental states do not have the death penalty (including Delaware as of April 2, 1958). In South Dakota the penalty was abolished from 1930 to 1938; in Kansas from 1930 to 1934. Although a record total of 184 prisoners were awaiting execution at the close of 1959, the average number of executions is declining. Data from U.S. Bureau of Prisons.

Rhee Forces Take Korean Election

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Syngman Rhee's forces won the presidency and vice presidency of South Korea today in a landslide after a bloody election the opposition charged was rigged. The anti-Rhee Democratic party promised a court contest.

Post-election violence flared anew as demonstrators, disgruntled with the outcome of the voting, scuffled today with police in front of the Democrats Seoul headquarters.

At least 7 and perhaps up to 11 persons were reported killed Tuesday in election violence. All but one died in a seven-hour battle between police, Democrats and students at Masan, 250 miles south of Seoul.

Rhee, whose Democratic party opponent died a month ago after a stomach operation, won his fourth four-year term with a record popular vote.

This time the 84-year-old president's powerful Liberal party machine succeeded in electing National Assembly Speaker Lee Ki-poong to the vice presidency. Lee, 63, overwhelmingly defeated John M. Chang of the Democrats, who had bested Lee in the 1956 vice-presidential race by 200,000 votes.

The vice-presidential race was of major importance because of the possibility the aged president might not live out his term.

Old Airline Pilots Are Grounded

NEW YORK (AP)—Commercial airline pilots 60 years of age or older were grounded today by a Federal Aviation Agency order.

The ban went into effect at midnight after Federal Judge Alexander Bicks Monday denied a motion by the Air Line Pilots Assn. seeking a preliminary injunction against the ruling. Forty-seven pilots were affected immediately. Attorneys for the pilots argued that the order, issued last December, was arbitrary and unreasonable.

Couple Will Be Allowed to Adopt Child Considered to Be Too Smart for Them

OLD BRIDGE, N.J. (AP)—I.Q. of 138.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Combs went ahead today with plans to adopt their brilliant 4-year-old foster child, Alice Marie, following a surprise state decision clearing the way.

"I'm so completely happy," Combs said after the New Jersey Board of Child Welfare Tuesday abandoned its contention that the girl was too intellectually gifted for her foster parents to raise.

Dark-haired, bright-eyed Alice scampered joyfully for photographers around the trim home—the center of attention although she didn't know why.

Combs credited "the press and public opinion" with bringing about the board's sudden decision on the girl with the near-genius tor E. R. Quesada maintained that to allow pilots 60 or over to fly passengers at speeds of 500 miles an hour would be a hazard to safety in air carrier operations.

The pilots immediately appealed Bicks' decision. A hearing was set for April 8 before a three-judge appeals court.

Brazzi Picks Fine Time to Make Return

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Rosanno Brazzi picked a fine time to pay a return visit to Hollywood—right in the midst of the actors' strike.

He's here for a two-month stay, but the strike won't keep him idle. He's doing a TV show for the June Allyson Theater and may do others. He has been talking to studios about future assignments.

"One of them will be a 15-million-dollar production," said the Italian actor, who was cagey about naming it. (I suspect it is MGM's "Charlemagne," to be filmed in Cinemas.)

"The thing I like best about the project is that I will not be cast as a lover. Thank heaven for that. I absolutely refuse to play lovers again."

"Hollywood can see me only as a lover. I hate it. Every actor does. Love scenes are the worst of all to me."

"Why Because when you make love to a woman, you say things that mean a lot to both of you, but would sound silly to someone listening at the keyhole."

Brazzi's biggest Hollywood break was as the French planter in "South Pacific." He has reservations about how the picture came out. He argued with the film makers that the film should develop the character he played, a strong man who had once committed murder, rather than following the bare outlines in the play.

"I wanted to sing 'Some Enchanted Evening' in my own voice, which is plenty good enough," he said. Instead the voice of an operatic basso was dubbed in histrionic style.

"South Pacific" has done big business in this country, but Brazzi said it faced problems in Europe.

"I had to work with the cutter to remove 34 minutes from the picture for showing in Italy," he remarked. "Most of it was songs. The Italians can't understand how two people can be playing a love scene and suddenly burst into song. If they want music, they get it from opera."

Seed Firm Burns at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Fire swept through the elevator section of the L. A. Green Seed Co. of Arkansas here early today.

Firemen said flames were leaping out of the 75 ft. elevator when they arrived.

Loss was estimated at $60,000. Origin of the fire was not determined.

There is no one hat silhouette this spring. There are many and varied hat heights and widths. These range from miniature to large and include sheers as well as solid straws. The "big" story is told (upper left) in terms of height in crown and a wide brim. This hat, in delicate pink ball straw, has ripple brim blooming with roses. It's a Miss May design. Classic silhouette (upper right) by Christian Dior-New York is in natural ball with garland of flowers in blue, gold and pink. There's a 1960 upward tilt to the brim at the back. The halo brooch (lower left) in shiny black straw has tailored bow trim the width of the brim. This is an Enme design. A bulky look is achieved in a small hat (lower right) by designer Sally Victor. The dome silhouette is draped in natural silk surah, has a matching strawband band.

DOROTHY DIX

He May Be Sphinx,
But He's Her Man

Dear Dorothy Dix:

When I saw your letter from "Lonesome," who said her husband spoke only 20 words an evening, and spent the evening reading or watching television, I said to my husband, "If I didn't know the difference, I would think I wrote this."

Tell Lonesome I am not lonesome. My bathroom sparkles for my man's home-coming. My house is in order, the yard all taken care of, shopping done for the week, a good dinner to put right on the table while he washes up; and be sure and have a dress on and look nice. Then after I get the dishes done, I go in and sit by him and slip my hand in his. He never says a word. But (thank God he does not drink, spend his money, or come home to quarrel, I'll take my man as he is. I could do worse. Don't let on how lonesome you are and it will turn out you are not lonesome. Be thankful. "The thoughts that absorb us are the thoughts that mold us." Please, God, let them be good ones—Mrs. A.M.

Dear Mrs. A.M.: What a nice letter, straight from the heart. If we'd only stop and count our blessings we would all find much for which to say "thank you."

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My brother has been married five years and has two lovely children. He works nights. His wife and I used to go shopping together every Friday night. About a month ago she called and said she had decided to shop during the day but she gave no explanation. Then I found out she was going around with a married man. I have seen her with him on four occasions. Do you think I should tell my brother, or chance him finding out, or talk to my sister-in-law Or should I keep out of it—C.B.

Dear C.B.: If you look for trouble, you'll find it. Keep out of it.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

When I was two months pregnant with my second baby, my husband volunteered for overseas duty. Eight months later when I was ready to join him, he didn't have the money for me and the children to make the trip. I wanted a divorce but I don't have the money.

A few weeks ago I met a girl in the same situation. She told me that when the time came, if yours. I may sound old-fashioned

I hadn't lived with my husband for three years, I could get a divorce easily. Meanwhile, my parents keep me at my wits end. They act like I'm doing something sneaky. I would like an occasional date and know several nice young men, but want no more than friendship. My husband dates so I couldn't be unfair to him if I did.

Could you advise me where can I find out about the divorce from a reliable source? What can I do to get along with my parents? Should I sit home and watch television or live my own life?—C.D.I.I.

Dear C.D.I.I.: You and your husband are as irresponsible as robins. How about the children? I take it your parents shelter them and you. If so, in accepting their help you tacitly give them the right to protect you and yours. I may sound old-fashioned

Telephone Connects Both Stuttgart's

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP)—An international telephone connection today links the Rotary Clubs of Stuttgart, Ark., and Stuttgart, Germany.

This date was picked because it is that which West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer met President Eisenhower in Washington.

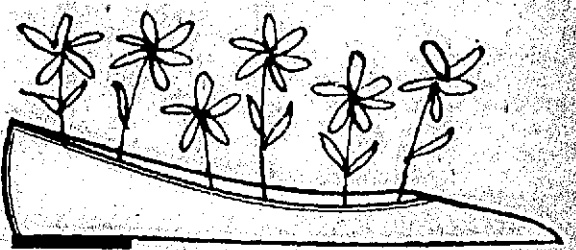

Plans for the 15-minute international conversation date back two months when the first letters suggesting the idea were exchanged.

Stuttgart, Ark., is named for the city in Germany.

The presidents of the two clubs, Edgar Dicks of Stuttgart, Ark., and Dr. Johannes Stockinger of Stuttgart, Germany, were selected as the first to talk to each other.

Following that, a doctor, a merchant and a farmer from each side of the Atlantic exchange views.

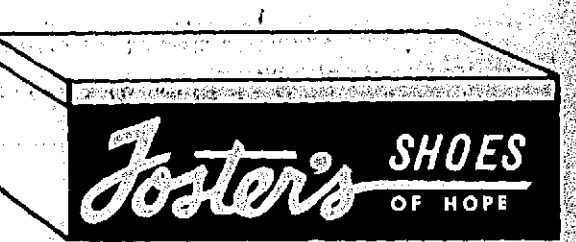

Public address systems and interpreters will be used.

All Not Fault of Negroes, Says Faubus

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus says Negroes are not entirely responsible for the integration problem.

Speaking to a joint meeting yesterday of the Arkansas Legislative Council and the Arkansas AMEN College board of trustees, Faubus said, "some fool whites" helped stir up the controversy.

Faubus later told a meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club that integration might be acceptable "if it comes by evolution and not by force."

The Legislative Council and the AMEN board held a joint meeting at the new state vocational-technical school here to discuss the Negro college's future.

J. F. Wahl of Helena, board vice chairman, told the Council that if adequate funds were provided, the school was prepared to furnish university-type undergraduate work.

The board also asked that a salary schedule be worked out to put AMEN on a competitive basis with other schools in the bidding for teacher talent.

PRESIDENT OF EVANGEL

College Will Not Punish Students

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The board of trustees of Philander Smith College has declined to discipline students who took part in a protest demonstration against lunch counter segregation here last Thursday.

The students "are entitled to express their individual opinions," the board said after a meeting here yesterday.

About 50 Negroes—mostly Philander Smith students—faded seats at the counter of the F. W. Woolworth store. Five were arrested when they refused to leave on request of officers and will be tried tomorrow in municipal court.

"The trustees neither approve nor disapprove the students' action and feel that no official action is necessary at the present time," the board's statement said.

There has been no recurrence of a sitdown demonstration, but police converged on another downtown store yesterday when some one reported by telephone that young Negroes had entered.

The small group of Negroes left by the time police arrived. A clerk said the youths straggled past the lunch counter but made no effort to sit down.

Batesville Votes Bonds for Big Plant

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Batesville voters yesterday put the stamp of approval on a new Sclerolite Rubber Co. plant.

A total of $1,000,000 in bonds to finance the plant was approved in county-wide balloting. Margins of approval were near unanimous.

The city of Batesville approved a one million dollar revenue bond issue authorized under a law adopted at a January special session of the Arkansas Legislature. The vote was 2,011 for and 19 against.

Batesville and Independence County combined to approve the $500,000 bond issue under Amendment 49. This issue, which carries a five mill tax, was approved 4,137 to 82 on a basis of incomplete returns. County officials said the about 1,000 votes in 10 boxes still out could not change the result.

Some rural precincts were delayed in reporting because of a snowstorm.

The special session was called primarily to set up financing machinery to enable Batesville to get the Sclerolite plant. The Batesville vote was the first under the new

Midwest Hit by Blustery Snowstorm

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A blustery snowstorm landed another wintry blow today at broad areas in the Midwest, already pumpled from a month of heavy snow and unseasonable cold.

The new storm, powered by easterly winds of 20 to 35 m.p.h., dumped heavy snow from eastern Kansas and northern Missouri as it swept northeastward.

The fresh snow fell atop a covering more than a foot high in many places in Kansas, northern Missouri, southeast Nebraska and southern Iowa.

Heavy snow warnings were issued from northern Missouri northward through Iowa and into southeastern Minnesota and eastward across Illinois and parts of Wisconsin, Indiana and lower Michigan.

The severe late winter storm kept schools closed in many areas. Office and factories also shut down in some sections. Driving conditions throughout the snow belt were hazardous and travel was sharply curtailed.

More than seven inches of snow fell in Kansas City Tuesday, adding to the half-foot fall on Monday. Two inches of snow piled atop the white blanket in Ottawa, Kan., in a 45-minute period.

At least six traffic deaths were blamed on the stormy weather in Kansas. Traffic was halted on U.S. 75 north of Topeka because of cars and blowing, drifting snow.

Thunderstorms rumbled across the southern Gulf states, with locally heavy rain in parts of southern Alabama, northwest Florida and southern Georgia. The Weather Bureau canceled an earlier forecast of possible tornadoes in central Mississippi and west central Alabama.

The unseasonable cold in most of the eastern half of the nation persisted. Freezing weather extended from Virginia to along the Ohio River across southern Missouri southwestward into northwestern Texas and west and northward to the eastern Washington border.

It was around zero in northern lower Michigan. Miami reported a mild 74 degrees.

Bodies of 13 Miners Found, Hope Fades

By ROBERT E. MILLER and JACK WHITE

LOGAN, W. Va. (AP)—Until they found the first body, searchers held some hope that the 18 men trapped in Holden coal mine 22 might still be alive.

By early today the bodies of 13 had been hauled out of the gas-filled passageways and the last wisp of hope for the others was gone.

But the search went on.

Somewhere in the dank honey-comb of tunnels were the other members of the digging party imprisoned March 8 by a cave-in and fire nearly three miles from the mine opening.

Two in the original group of 20 scrambled to safety moments after discovery of the fire, apparently launched off when falling state snapped an electric trolley wire.

Jack Matheson of nearby Holden, W. Va., in the rescue team which found the first 13 bodies, said death by asphyxiation came early for the men in the island Creek Coal Co. eight miles from the Kentucky border.

It might have been caused by smoke from the fire or by poison coal-gas permeating the abandoned mine section to which the victims had fled.

Passing up three carved-out rooms in which they might have sealed themselves off from the deadly fumes until help came, they had dashed for an opening in the abandoned section. But there was no opening. It had been barred within recent weeks by the crumbling walls and low ceiling in that part of the mine.

The first body was found sprawled alone. Twelve others were in two nearby heaps.

State and company officials withheld the names of those first found dead until all 13 of the men could be accounted for. Among the 13 was W. K. Donaldson, 55, a company safety inspector.

made better showings against any other than Faubus. In 1958, Faubus was riding a wave of publicity which resulted from his battle against integration of Little Rock public high schools.

The 50-year-old Faubus, who owns a weekly newspaper in his home town of Huntsville, first won the governor's chair in 1952. That year he defeated former Gov. Francis A. Cherry but it took a runoff to tell it.

In 1956, Faubus beat two opponents for governor—Jim Johnson of Crossett, now an Arkansas Supreme Court Justice, and Jim Snoddy of Alma.

Johnson ran as an implacable segregationist. During the campaign he attacked Faubus as too moderate on racial problems.

No other Arkansas governor has won four terms. Only one other, Jeff Davis, ever served three terms.

Faubus called a special news conference to announce that he the inmates of the State Hospital will run again. A prepared statement already had been sent to state newspapers.

In the statement, the governor said "a close check of the entire state had led me to believe that the people will successfully support my efforts and this decision."

Faubus did not say who made the survey nor give any poll figures.

His statement said his administration had contributed much to the growth and progress of Arkansas.

"While every service rendered by the state government to its people has been improved," the statement continued, "the prison won four terms. Only one other, Jeff Davis, ever served three terms."

Sitdowns in South Seem Diminishing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Negro sitdown demonstrations appeared to be diminishing in the South today in the face of mass convictions and firm police action but new racial violence was reported in two cities.

Negro students at Florida A&M University called off their sitdowns protesting segregated canteen facilities at Tallahassee, Monticello, Ala., was quiet. There was one small demonstration in South Carolina.

Courts in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina handed down a series of convictions Monday in connection with sitdown troubles. Both Negroes and white persons were involved.

At Charleston, S. C., Grady McMakin, 24, a white service station attendant, told police six Negro youths carved crude "KKK" initials in his back, beat him up and robbed him of $40.

In New Orleans, Michael Tortorich, 17, told police a Negro teenager stabbed him in the back Sunday night as he waited for a bus. Tortorich's condition was described as fair.

The decision to halt demonstrations at Tallahassee was announced by Ira C. Robinson, president of the Student Government Assn. at Florida A&M University. He said agreement was reached after Saturday's near riot in downtown Tallahassee and the turning back of a Negro march by tear gas.

At Petersburg, Va., hundreds of Negroes sang hymns outside the courthouse while 11 members of their race were convicted of trespassing at the city's public library March 7. All were released on bond.

Two Negro college students were convicted of trespassing in Raleigh, N.C. They were among

CHAPTER XXI

Tom Chaffee stood for a moment or two looking at the new lettering on the window, then opened the door and stood in the doorway.

"Going to do some lawing?"

"If I can get clients."

"Oh, we got plenty of crime in Pawnee City. Only most of the people just up and plead guilty and pay the fine—if they can. If they can't, we keep 'em in the calaboose awhile. I s'pose you'll be comin' around now and tellin' the prisoners not to plead guilty."

"No," said Bokker.

Bokker shook his head.

Bokker was making up his bed toward the middle of the afternoon, when he heard the street door open. He stepped into the "office" and was surprised to see Ruth Compton.

"Curiously got the best of me," she said. "Paul told me you'd opened an office."

Bokker made a small sweeping gesture to include the meager furnishings. "This is it. I sleep in the back room."

"That's what I'm doing at the shop," she said. "I don't think I slept five minutes last night, with all the clatter and noise in the hotel." She paused. "I sold a hat."

"Just one?"

"Mrs. Fletcher says some days she doesn't sell anything. Then, when a big trail herd comes, she may sell 12 or 15 in a single day."

"A trail herd's here today," Bokker said, then added, "Paul Shay bought it."

"He told me. He—he also said you didn't approve of the way he bought it."

"Paul's business is none of my concern."

"I thought you two were old friends."

"We were in the hospital together, six years ago. We had beds next to each other. For about three weeks. I never saw him again until yesterday," Bokker said.

Batesville to Vote Monday for Industry

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Batesville and Independence County voters take over today where the Arkansas Legislature left off in expanding industrialization.

Voters go to the polls to decide on issuance of 1 1/2 million dollars worth of bonds for an industrial plant. Batesville voters are asked to approve one million dollars in revenue bonds under Act 9 of the January special legislative session.

The Batesville election will be the first under the new act, which authorizes cities and counties to vote tax-free revenue bonds to aid industrialization.

Independence County will vote on a proposed $500,000 dollar issue which would carry a possible maximum five-mill tax levy.

Proceeds of both the city and county issues would be used to build a plant for Selberling Rubber

Rights Attorney Accuses Director

WASHINGTON (AP)—An attorney who quit his job with the Civil Rights Commission today accused the staff director, Gordon Tiffany, of discriminating against Negro employees.

John T. R. Godlewski called a news conference to air his grievances against Tiffany, a former attorney general of New Hampshire.

Godlewski, 42, an attorney with the commission since November 1958, said "there have been numerous instances of discrimination against Negroes in the commission."

Stressing that his quarrel was with Tiffany, and not with the six commissioners, Godlewski said his Negro secretary was asked to resign before marrying a German while girl last August. The Negro met the girl while stationed in Germany with the armed forces, Godlewski said.

of more than 9 inches in parts of Kansas and warnings of falls ranging from 4 to 12 inches in Missouri were issued by the Weather Bureau. Heavy snow warnings also were posted for areas in Kentucky, Tennessee and southern Illinois and lesser amounts in parts of Alabama and Mississippi.

The snow belt covered wide areas extending from northern sections of Alabama and Mississippi northwestward through the mid-Mississippi Valley and parts of the Plains and Rockies.

Schools in some parts of the snow belt were closed.

Heaviest snowfall during the night was from the central Plains eastward through Missouri and Midwest Monday morning. How much of Tennessee and from Kansas into the Dakotas.

Tomorrow, at Mercury-Comet dealer's, first compact car with fine-car styling — priced with or below other compacts.

You're looking at the exciting new value-packed compact—Comet. NOTE ITS BEAUTIFUL STYLING. No saved-off, cut-down look, here. The Comet is proportioned like a fine car—long flowing lines, outstanding good looks.

LOOK CLOSELY AT THE EXTRA FEATURES. You pay nothing more for dual headlights, front and rear arm rests, door-operated dome light, foam padded front seat. And the trunk holds enough for the whole family on a long trip.

YOU'LL MARVEL AT THE ECONOMY. Comet's new simplified "six" engine delivers up to 28 miles per gallon of regular gas.

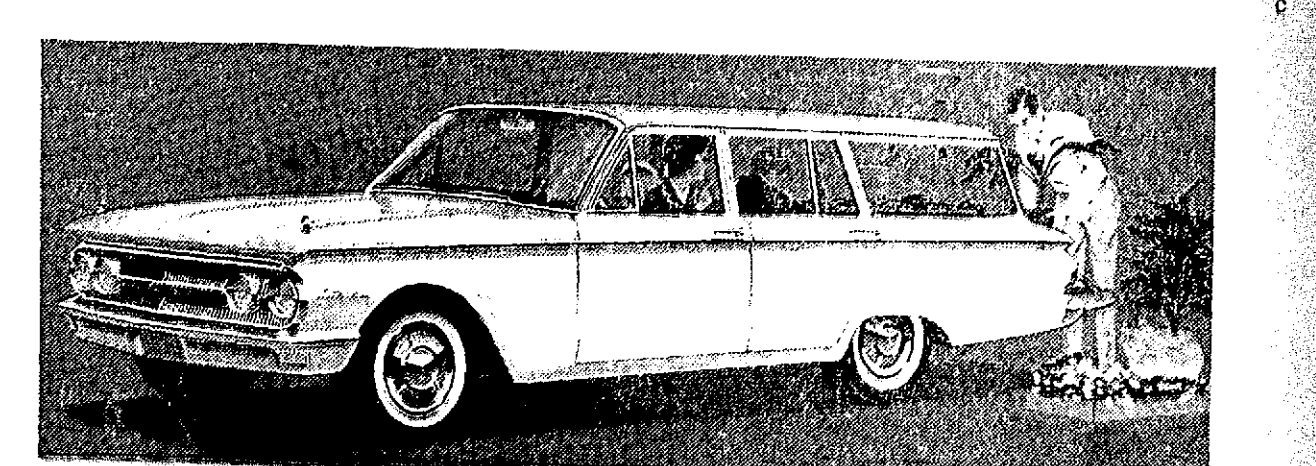

YOU'LL REVEL IN THE RIDE. No choppy steering, no bumpy traveling in Comet. The longer wheelbase (114" instead of 107" in average compacts) gives Comet a smoother ride, yet it turns on a dime.

NOW, CHECK THE PRICE. Comet is priced with or below other compacts like Rambler, Corvair, Lark, Valiant and Falcon.

COMPARE ALL THE COMPACT CARS — and you'll come away with a Comet. It's now at your Mercury-Comet dealer's.

FINEST COMPACT WAGONS ON THE MARKET. The new Comet wagons go far beyond what you might expect in a compact station wagon of this size. There is over 76 cubic feet for storage—as much room as in some wagons costing hundreds of dollars more; a retractable rear window takes the place of the old-fashioned liftgate. And, there is ample room for six adults with plenty of space left over for baggage. Along with the Comet two- and four-door sedans, there are two- and four-door wagons as well.

Officers Face Charge After Arrest of Man

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An Ohio deputy sheriff faces federal charges here in connection with the arrest and transportation to Ohio of an Arkansas man wanted for drunken driving.

Raveney Trunko, 28, of Akron, was charged in U.S. District Court here with violating the civil rights of Wally Williams, 41, of near Pang-burn.

U.S. Atty. Osro Cobb said Trunko and another man drove to Williams' home on March 28, 1959 and that Trunko flashed a deputy's badge and told Williams he would be taken to Little Rock for questioning about a stolen car.

Instead, Cobb said, Williams was driven to Ravenna, Ohio, where he was wanted for jumping $500 bond on a drunk driving charge.

Cobb said Trunko was not acting as a deputy but as an employee of the bonding company when he took Williams into custody.

Trunko was arrested in Cleveland Monday and released on $100 after a preliminary hearing.

Cobb said Williams was contacted on the drunken driving charge and fined $250 and sentenced to five days in jail. The judge said $100 of the fine on the drunken driving charge was paid by the bonding company. The was charged Monday with reporting company billed Williams $14,879 for ing only $14,879 of $58,000 he expenses in taking him back to Ohio and Williams said this, Cobb said.

Cobb said Trunko ignored Williams' right to extradition pre-Rock for trial, Cobb said.

FLYING FAN VS. SUB—Even as the race for space hots up, another race above and under the sea goes on. This is the race between constantly improving submarines—nuclear powered and armed with ballistic missiles—and better means of detecting and destroying them. One weapon under study is this fan aircraft, which combines conventional design with a vertical-lifting rotor inside its fuselage. Drawing courtesy Boeing Magazine.

Waiter Is Indicted

NEW YORK (AP)—A former headwaiter at the Copacabana restaurant and night club has been indicted on charges of evading $11,294 in income taxes.

Ronald E. Eggleston, 50, who recently signed from the club last month, was charged Monday with reporting company billed Williams $14,879 for ing only $14,879 of $58,000 he expenses in taking him back to Ohio and Williams said this, Cobb said.

Cobb said Trunko ignored Williams' right to extradition pre-Rock for trial, Cobb said.

'Love Is Like Old Lace, So Easily Torn, But So Hard to Repair'—Couple Is Advised

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—An elderly woman once told Phil Ford and Mimi Himes, "Love is like old lace—so easily torn, but so hard to repair."

The two young comics, a husband-and-wife team in show business, have borne this in mind ever since. "We try not to hurt each other in the little things," said Phil. "Sometimes it's the small wounds that never heal."

Phil started in San Francisco as a song-and-dance man at the age of 11. Mimi was only 12—just past pigtailed—when she began as a singer in a Vancouver supper club.

Eight years ago they met in an Anchorage, Alaska, night club and decided to team up in a comedy act. They were married in 1954.

Life was hurried, hectic, but happy in the next few years as they toured through dozens of small night clubs in the United States and Canada, polishing their act, learning how to deal with every type of audience.

"Looking back, I can't say they were hard times," said Phil. "We kept busy. We weren't nationally known. We were"—he smiled—"a very successful unknown act."

"They now earn up to $10,000 a week, and their annual income is about $300,000—or higher."

"They still have to live out of a suitcase. But success hasn't so far dulled their happiness, as it often does with husband-wife teams. They feel being married is a help rather than a handicap in their mutual career."

"I deem it a very great help," said Mimi positively. "Being in love and having a certain rapport is good for your sense of humor."

"You have to love each other if you do comedy together. Otherwise you're almost sure to break up in time."

"We never want to work apart. We have fun together. After the show, we take the dog for a walk and laugh it up. I wouldn't trade places with anyone in the world."

The only time tension bothers them, she said, is the last 10 minutes before they go on stage.

"It gets a little crowded when both of us try to make up in the same bathroom mirror at the same time," she said. "But the rest of the day goes smoothly."

May Cut Number of Sanity Tests

BENTON, Ark. (AP)—The State Hospital has moved to reduce the number of persons committed for mental examinations while under criminal charges.

The hospital's board of control decided yesterday to ask circuit judges to consult at least two local doctors before ordering a commitment.

Dr. Granville Jones, hospital superintendent, told the board at a Benton meeting that it costs the state $650 for each 30-day examination.

Jones said 212 persons were examined last year and only 55 were found to be insane. Jones had charged in a statement Monday that some accused persons were using the mental tests as a delaying tactic.

The hospital gets $90 for each examination from the county in which the person is committed. Jones said, but the net cost of the examination program to the state is $140,000 a year.

Marriage May Cost

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—Kenneth Beaver faces petty theft charges because he got married. Beaver, a 35-year-old painter married his housekeeper, Nancy Rebolz, whom he had hired to look after a teen-age daughter by his divorced wife.

As long as he was not married he could draw funds for a housekeeper from the San Mateo County Welfare Department. But he failed to notify the department of his marriage and it now charges his collection of $537 since then constitutes petty theft.

Play of Stith Sparks St. Bonaventure

By DON WEISS Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Invitation Tournament takes a 24-hour breather today while the basketball gentry savors the play of Little Sam Stith who has fired streaking St. Bonaventure into the semifinals along with top-seeded Bradley, Utah State and Providence.

Sam's savoring it, too. "Oh, man, it was delicious," he said Tuesday night after scoring a tournament high of 37 points in the Bonnies' 106-71 rout of defending champion St. John's.

Sam, a chunky 6-2 bundle of speed, has scored 64 points in St. Bonaventure's two NIT victories so far. With his ball-hawking and floor generalship added in, he's overshadowing his more publicized brother, Tom, the nation's No. 2 scorer with a 32-point average. This although Tom has scored 51 points in the two games and has rebounded well.

The Bonnies, now 21-3 with an 18-game winning streak, got their semifinal test Thursday night against Bradley, the nation's No. 4 team with a 25-2 record after spilling Dayton 78-64 in the opener of Tuesday night's doubleheader. Providence (23-4) and Utah (22-4), who won their quarter-final games on Saturday, meet in the other semi with the two winners playing for the tournament championship Saturday afternoon.

"Our half court press did it against St. John's," said St. Bonaventure Coach Eddie Donovan.

Bradley, trailing 37-35 with about 17 minutes to play, went into its outed full court press on Dayton, rattled the Flyers, and quickly pulled into a commanding lead.

"It has worked for us many times this season," Bradley Coach Chuck Orsborn said of the press.

Cardinals' Title Hopes Depend on a Lot of Ifs

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—"If" is the word for the St. Louis Cardinals. If Stan Musial can come back... If Bill White can play center field... If Alex Grammas can handle second base... If the young pitchers come through.

Solly Hemus, the eternal optimist, has sold himself a bill of goods. Despite questionable pitching and two key experiments he talks about a first division future for his St. Louis club which finished a distant seventh last year. "The National League is so well balanced that any first division club would win," said Hemus today. "Look at what Los Angeles did last year—all the way from seventh to first."

Onlookers with less enthusiasm believe the Cardinals will do very well indeed if they can finish fifth. That would mark satisfactory progress in the rebuilding plan.

Last year the Cardinals ranked second in the league in hitting at .269 but were seventh in runs scored.

"That means we didn't have the power to knock them in after we got men on base," said Hemus. "So we went after power. We got Carl Sawatski from the Phillies, Bob Nieman from Baltimore and Daryl Spencer and Leon Wagner from San Francisco."

Musial, as usual, is the Cardinal key. He figures in a slightly different manner this season. The big question is can he still do the job Musial toyed with retiring but was talked out of it. At 29, he will play first base. Hemus will give him as much rest as he needs. If Musial can bounce back from that 255 year and play 160 games, the Cardinals should be better. If he can't make it, Hemus will be ready with a series of switches.

At the moment, White (30) is the center-fielder, one of the four first basemen on the club, his bat must be in the lineup. Hemus thinks he can do the job. Joe Cunningham (.345), another first baseman, will be in right field, with Nieman (.292 at Baltimore) and Leon Wagner (.225 at San Francisco) platooning in left.

If necessary, Cunningham will be returned to first base. Curt Flood (.255) is an accomplished center-fielder. Other outfield prospects are Ellis Bruton (.292 at Omaha) and Charles James (.300 at Rochester).

With Musial on first and Ken Boyer (.300) at third, the ends of the infield will be familiar. Spencer (.265) at San Francisco returns to his favorite position at shortstop after playing second for the Giants. Grammas, a shortstop who hit .269 last season, has moved to second with Eddie Stanky as his tutor. George Crowe (.301), Wally Shannon (.287) and Dick Gray (.314) are the extras. Young Rob Kabbes (.267 at Tulsa) has looked good and Gene Oliver (.244) will be available as a handyman. Hal Smith (.270) is the No. 1 catcher with Sawatski (.293 at Philadelphia) as a left-handed pinch-hitter and second catcher. Darrell Johnson (.210) at Richmond probably will be the third. Larry Jackson (.14-13), Vinegar Bend Mizell (.13-10), 20-year-old Bob Miller (.443), Ron Kline (.11-13 at Pittsburgh), Bob Gibson (.9-7) are the likely starters. Lindy McDaniel (.14-12), Marshall Bridges (.6-3) and Don Dullba (.0-1) figure for the bullpen. Ben Keegan (.18-10 at Rochester), Mel Nelson (.9-9 at Tulsa), Jim Donohue (.6-7 at Omaha) and Dick Ricketts (.610 at Rochester) are fighting for jobs.

Oddsman Pick Foley to Win

CLEVELAND (AP)—The odds makers are saying Mike De John will need a knockout to defeat a highly ranked heavyweight Zora Foley, the favorite in tonight's 10-round televised bout at the Arena.

And De John, who has 27 knockouts to his credit in 40 professional bouts (40-7-1), says he is just the

ABC Signs Up to Televis College Games

By JIM KENSIL Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's football-playing colleges can look forward to a guaranteed record 64 million dollars from television revenue in the next two seasons. But perhaps benefitting even more from Tuesday's rich contract between the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. and the American Broadcasting Co. will be the American Football League.

It was the first two-year contract the NCAA ever awarded to a television network, and nearly tripled the previous high of $2,200,000 bid by NBC for the 1959 season. No figures were disclosed by the NCAA or ABC, but The Associated Press learned that the ABC bid outstripped the National Broadcasting Co.'s offer by nearly a million dollars. NBC bid $5,300,000, the AP learned.

A Columbia Broadcasting System spokesman said CBS did not bid for the college games which will be televised on 13 dates each of the next two seasons.

The switch by the colleges leaves the current football TV lineup this way: CBS has the National Football League and ABC the college games. NBC has nothing to offer advertisers for the highly competitive weekend fall TV sports market.

That's where the American Football League comes in. The AFL has been leaning toward ABC in contract negotiations on the assumption that NBC money was in college football and CBS cash in the NFL.

Now the AFL suddenly becomes extremely desirable to NBC and if the new pro football league plays its cards right, it may pull off a much fatter deal than was possible previously.

The amount paid by ABC was not surprising in that the 1959-60 NCAA plan is the most attractive ever offered.

It gives the network control of both nine national and four regional dates each season. Previously the network had no control over regional games. The regions have also been expanded into only three national segments. Previously they often were broken down into as many as eight, the number of NCAA districts.

New Track Could Bring New Records

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—California's track men of the future may flash to new records over a rubberized, all-weather running track that could be retrofitted like a tire.

"It has great possibilities," said Frank B. Durkee of the State Division of Architecture, including: Little or no maintenance; a tough, waterproof surface which would remain uniform throughout a meet, permitting better evaluation of each athlete's performance; greater acceleration for runners. The state Tuesday called for bids on the track, to be built at Humboldt State College on California's rainy north coast. It's expected to cost about $145,000, and is believed to be the first of its kind.

The conventional clay cinder track gets too mushy in the winter and needs considerably costly maintenance, Durkee said.

The new quarter-mile track would be built of a rubberized, resilient asphalt mixture consisting of about equal part of asphalt, rubber and sand.

Spikes don't stick in the self-sealing substance, Durkee said.

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—Raymond Powell has resigned as head football coach at Arkansas High School after two years at the helm.

Powell said he would take a similar job at Stamps High, a Class B school.

Powell, promoted from a junior high job, criticized Arkansas High students for lack of interest in athletics. He also said belonging to the Big Nine Conference worked a hardship on Arkansas High, a small school, because of manpower and travel disadvantages.

Thinks Hawks Will Capture Pro Playoff

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Owner Ben Kerner makes it clear he doesn't expect his St. Louis Hawks to stumble again in the pro basketball playoffs—and an injury to veteran Slater (Dugie) Martin wouldn't serve as an excuse.

"This is our greatest club," Kerner said today. "Our bench is much stronger than last year and so is the backline. Even the front line is better."

"Their mental attitude facing Minneapolis is far better than last year."

Martin, a 34-year-old, 11-year veteran of many National Basketball Assn. playoffs, will be ready for spot duty at best in the opener of the best of seven Western final series with Minneapolis tonight.

Martin re-injured his right leg—a pulled muscle—on March 6 and the leg is still stiff.

Dugie was injured in the first game of the Western playoffs last season and the Lakers won the series in six games.

Avant 159, Philadelphia, 7.

San Jose, Calif. — Louis Molina, 189, San Jose, knocked out Dave Comacho, 189, Mexico, 10.

Little Rock Could Get Baseball Team

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Southern Assn. President Charles Hurth was scheduled to meet today with Little Rock interests to discuss where the Arkansas capital will pick up a baseball franchise dropped yesterday by New Orleans.

Ray Winder, former general manager of the Little Rock entry in the Class AA league, said he would act as a go-between for Hurth and a group of unidentified businessmen who are interested in obtaining the franchise.

A spokesman for the businessmen said the group would want to be sure that fans want baseball here before committing itself.

The Little Rock Travelers drew poorly and surrendered their franchise in 1958.

Floyd Upsets Unbeaten Von Clay

By RALPH BERNSTEIN Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Unrated Clarence (Tiger) Floyd upset previously unbeaten Von Clay, fifth-ranked light heavyweight, and then had to borrow train fare home to New York.

Minutes after his greatest triumph, Floyd learned his $750 purse had been attached. The fighter, his trainer, Vic Valle, and Frank Vone, brother of Floyd's manager Tony Vone, were staked to train fare and a midnight snack by promoter Herman Taylor.

Neither the promoter nor the fighter would say who attached the purse or why. "It's a personal matter," said Floyd as he savored the sweet smell of one of the year's big boxing upsets.

In the first of two non-televised 10-rounders at the Arena Tuesday night, young Len Matthews spanked the slick boxer from Algeria, Labovair Godth, The Philadelphia lightweight, fourth-ranked in his division, won a unanimous decision. He weighed 137 and Godth 138.

While Matthews - Godth was billed as the feature attraction, Floyd stole the show with his stunning upset of the 20-year-old Clay.

Violating all the fundamentals of boxing, he staggered the 10-1 favorite in at least four rounds.

Floyd said he has had only two other fights in more than a year because of "a lack of willing opponents."

Chamberlain, Co. to Start Pro Playoffs

BOSTON (AP)—Defending champion Boston and Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain and Co. tonight open a best-of-seven series for a spot in the finals of the National Basketball Assn. playoffs.

The winner goes against the victor in the Western Division St. Louis-Minneapolis series for the NBA title.

Boston, by virtue of its superior season record, good health and the advantage of a home court tonight rated as a favorite both for the opening game and the series.

The biggest threat is Chamberlain, the 7-foot-1 rookie giant, and the NBA's most valuable player, who pulled the Warriors from an also-ran last season to a top contender this year. On the way to a second-place finish, he established eight new league marks.

After tonight's game, the scene shifts to Philadelphia Friday night, back to Boston Saturday afternoon for a nationally televised struggle, then back to Philadelphia again.

Mother Weds Father of Quintuplets

CUERNAVACA, Mexico (AP)—A woman who gave birth to quintuplets a week ago married their father Monday in a hospital where the four surviving infants lay in incubators.

A civil ceremony was held for Paula Guerrero Mungia, 43, and Gilberto Diaz, 28. They plan a religious ceremony later.

Mrs. Diaz gave birth to two boys and three girls last Tuesday. One boy died shortly after birth. The couple have two other children.

Diaz, an unemployed farmhand, said he and Paula had not married for 10 years because of money troubles and objections from her family. Now he has been promised a steady job. Mrs. Diaz' parents are reconciled to the union and authorities plan to build a home for the family.

Doctors said the babies are doing well but will probably remain in the hospital for five months.
